Blairlogie Ladies lunch

Many thanks to the ladies who attended lunch at the Bothy. Your feedback suggests that such a social event was long overdue. It was lovely to catch up with neighbours in a relaxed atmosphere where cooking and washing up was not an issue!

Some of you have suggested that the next lunch should be in the Reading Room where we can enjoy the privacy and space. Obviously, it would mean bringing a dish and your own poison, but I'm sure we could cope with that.

Yoga in the Reading Room

Yoga with Paula Ribeiro continues to be popular on Monday evenings: 6-7pm, and 7.15 to 8pm, resuming on 1st August. There is a good turnout of people from far and wide, such that she now offers two sessions. If you think you would enjoy it, then do come along; bring a mat and a blanket. Paula's style is both nurturing and challenging. She makes full use of the space and creates a serene environment with candles and music. At the end of the hour you will most certainly feel stretched and energised. Men are welcome to the class. Parking in the village car park as usual.

If you wish to contact Paula direct, her email address is: paularuteribeiro@Hotmail.com

News from the Reading Room

The change whereby the Community Trust will take responsibility for the Reading Room building is still in process and it is expected that all will be settled in a few more months. The core group of people now running Reading Room events as a subcommittee flying in loose formation is Katanya Hamilton, Una Bryce, Kate Doyle and Paula Gardiner. They will liaise with other individuals for particular events when a larger team is needed.

The evening of Dangerous Sports included accounts of Microlight Flying, Mountaineering in Norway, Riding Horses in Hunts and White Water Rafting on the Zambezi. The only surprise was that the people who presented these tales claimed that they were not really dangerous.

The Annual Village Barbecue is organised by the Reading Room and there is a change of venue and a change of mood this year. It will be held on Saturday 27th August from 6pm onwards up in front of Blairlogie Castle to hopefully catch some sun! The mood will be on a Hawaiian theme and the idea is it's a way of saying Aloha to people who are leaving the village and Aloha to new people. So for those who want to dress up – Hawaiian shirts, leis, flowers in hair etc.

Cooking facilities and sauces will be provided, simply bring your own food and drink. In the highly unlikely event of rain (!), we will move into the house. Giant Jenga and boules are available for the competitive amongst us.

Possible events to follow include Halloween and a revival of the Burns Supper.

Logie Community Council

The next meeting of the Community Council will be on Tuesday 27th September at 7.00pm in the Reading Room.

Logie Fast Broadband

The broadband system was set up for learning, leisure and business and it now has thirty clients, including some on the Business Park. A community Interest Company (CiC) has been formed to take over the running and support from the community trust.

The Wednesday Club

There is always a range of small jobs to do a round the village, filling pot holes, weeding the village garden etc. It would be good to get the Wednesday Club going again, say on Saturday 20th August. Yes, we know that is not a Wednesday, but this is Blairlogie!

Communications

Does everybody in your house see the Bugle? Please print it out and pin it up in the kitchen.

The Bugle needs a new Editor or small group of people to take it on. Funding for final production is available; it is only necessary to gather the news and a few pictures.
