INTRODUCTION

CENTURY after century this Britain of ours,

Heated hot with burning fears,
And bathed in baths of hissing tears,
And battered with the strokes of doom
To shape and use,

has risen with indomitable spirit, facing every wind, ready to fight to the death any one who interfered with her in her determination to see for herself and act for herself.

This “Roll of Honour” is offered as a tribute to the men of Denny and Dunipace who, through the dark years which followed August 1914, went out, inspired by the spirit of their race, to guard the paths of the sea, to die in the trenches of France and Flanders, in Egypt, in Mesopotamia, on the barren rocks of Gallipoli, and elsewhere on the far-flung battle front. They stood the storm and the strife, and to-day our land is free of the menace of foreign domination.

The individuals may be forgotten in the years to come, but what these men did shall live for evermore. They did not leave their country to founder, and rot, and fall to pieces—as so many said she was doing. They believed that their land was worth fighting for—that it was a good land. That it may be a land worth living in should be the earnest desire and constant endeavour of all.

Every care has been taken to make the “Roll” complete. It has been found difficult to trace, and to secure particulars regarding, all the men who during the years of war left the district to serve in the various branches of the Navy, the Army and the Air Forces. Young unmarried men in lodgings left none to retain a record of their going. The families of others removed from the town, and in a year or two were practically forgotten. It is thus inevitable that men whose names ought to be on the Roll are not there, but to these unknown and unrecorded heroes, as well as to those whose names it contains, the Roll is offered in tribute.

This Roll of Honour contains the names of 902 men who at time of enlistment had their homes in Denny or Dunipace.

Of these 154 were killed in action or died on Service.

Decorations were earned by 31 men.

The War Widows in the district number 39, and the War Orphans 88.

Sixteen men of the district passed lengthened periods in the hands of the enemy as Prisoners of War.

Their name liveth for evermore.

KIPLING.

How sleep the brave who sink to rest
By all their country's wishes blest !
When Spring, with dewy fingers cold,
Returns to deck their hallowed mould,
She there shall dress a sweeter sod
Than Fancy's feet have ever trod.

One who never turned his back but marched breast forward.

Never doubted clouds would break,
Never dreamed, though right were worsted, wrong would triumph,
Held we fall to rise, are baffled to fight better,

Sleep to wake.

The Monument, a sketch of which appears as the frontispiece of the Roll of Honour, is the work of G. H. Paulin, A.R.S.A., Glasgow. The pedestal is of grey granite, and the bronze figure of Victory or Peace has been adopted from the Burgh Seal. The site of the Monument, a knoll to the east of Denny Cemetery, is the gift of Charles William Forbes, Esq., of Callendar.

The illustration of the Monument is reproduced from a sketch by the sculptor. Herbertshire Castle has been photographed from a drawing by Miss Sherriff, Carronvale, in "Lands and Lairds of Larbert and Dunipace Parishes." The photograph of the moulding shop at Denny Iron Works was taken by Bailie James K. Shanks, Managing Director. The photograph of the machine in Carrongrove Paper Mill is by George A. Skinner, Fankerton. All the other photographs are by David Ritchie, newsagent, Denny. The paper on which the Roll is printed is the gift of the Carrongrove Paper Company, Limited.
